

SALES MINDSET ACTIVATION

LIVE GROUP TRAINING VIA MICROSOFT TEAMS

FACILITATED BY PSYCHIC MEDIUM KAREN

If you were given a proven way to unlock more potential within your sales team, would you implement it?

Objections and rejection are unavoidable in sales. What often determines success is not the product or pricing, but the belief, focus, and presence a salesperson brings into each conversation.

When belief is missing, sales professionals can sound scripted or forced. This reduces trust, limits engagement, and shortens attention spans. The Sales Mindset Activation is designed to retrain how sales teams think, communicate, and present themselves so confidence feels genuine rather than rehearsed.

“SALES PERFORMANCE IMPROVES WHEN BELIEF, FOCUS, AND COMMUNICATION ALIGN.”

What This Session Covers

- Visualisation techniques to mentally see the sale before the conversation begins
- Training to recognise and trust gut instinct versus emotional impulse
- Presentation retraining to reduce scripted delivery and increase authenticity
- Techniques to remain calm, focused, and persuasive under pressure
- Live group Q&A; with applied techniques for real sales challenges
